Presidents Message:

Last week I overheard some fellow Republicans criticizing Senator John McCain. If our party is to win in November we must unify. The following is an overview of some of the many reasons we should support Senator McCain for President.

He is an experienced leader. He is a common sense conservative who believes in a strong national defense, a smaller, more accountable government, economic growth, the dignity of life and traditional values.

America has much at stake in this election. We face a dangerous enemy in the War Against Islamic Extremists. We face an enemy that has repeatedly attacked us and remains committed to killing Americans and the destruction of our values. I feel Senator McCain is the best candidate prepared to lead and defend our nation and its allies from day one.

America is at an economic crossroads. Government spending is out of control. A Democrat elected President will join hands with a tax-and -spend Democratic Congress and subject us to enormous tax increases. America needs experienced leadership to guide the U.S. economy to greater prosperity, control government spending, keep taxes low and save Social Security.

Senator McCain is the only candidate who will appoint judges who will strictly interpret the law and not legislate from the bench. The next president will appoint many federal judges and perhaps even one or two Supreme Court Justices. The recent victory on partial birth abortion is an example of how important the Supreme Court is in protecting our values and interpreting the law as it is written. America needs a president who will provide strong moral leadership. The future of the Supreme Court is what is at stake in this election.

These are just a few of the many reasons Republicans must unify and not stay home in November. Please pass this on to any Republican friends who are considering doing this.

We have great programs in the next several months. Please attend our meetings and bring a friend. Remember, there is strength in numbers.

God Bless • Ruth Quattlebaum, President SARW

Announcements:

Husbands of our members are welcome to join as Associate Members for only $20.00 a year. We would be delighted to have them join SARW.

We have selected a recipient for the scholarship - Elise Alexander. She has been accepted to UGA. Scholarship amount $1000.00. She will graduate from Jenkins High School.

Board members voted to contribute $1000.00 to the defense fund of Lt. Colonel Jeffrey R. Chessani. Savannah resident Gail Matthews is Lt. Colonel Chessani's mother-in-law and will attend our next meeting to be presented with a check.

It looks like Coldwater Creek is on board for our Fashion Show that will be held in September at the Plantation Club.

Volunteers needed. Positions Open for Scrapbook? Magazines! Campaign Development?

HELP WANTED: Linda Wiebe has Chaired our Magazine Recycling Program (with stickers that say "Courtesy of SARW") for two years. Linda recently underwent orthoscopic surgery and is no longer able to continue this role. The magazines are donated and the job requires picking up the magazines after luncheons (and those left at HQ) and applying stickers, delivering to hospitals, clinics, hospice, etc. This job requires less than 4 hours a month. It is an important part of our "out-reach" and PR program. Brooke Floyd will be taking over Magazine Distribution for Linda Wiebe. Please call Ruth Quattlebaum at 898-8989 or rquattlebaum@comcast.net if you are willing to help Brooke with this well received service to the public.
